

ABOUT

Milwaukee Rapper, Branden Justice Linton, better known as "B Justice" has had a strong passion for music since elementary school. B. Justice an entrepreneur at heart curated his own record label Scholar Guy Music.

Under his record label, to-date B. Justice has released three impressive mixtapes; "Law and Order", "Scholar Life", and "Scholar Life 2".

Hard work and grind has garnered B. Justice the opportunity to open up for national recording artists such as, Machine Gun Kelly, Big Sean and the legendary DJ Premeire. As well as work with other hometown acts Jacob Latimore and songwriter Rico Love.

Through his skillful approach to life, he hustled his way from the rough streets of Milwaukee to performing in front of thousands. His charismatic stage presence resonates with fans and leaves spectators in awe of his unforgettable show.

Mixing creativity with intelligence is his trademark and gives his songs more meaning than what just scrapes the surface.
